

ENGLAND AT TRENT BRIDGE

Royal London One-Day International 19 June 2018

The world famous Trent Bridge Cricket Ground in Nottingham will host the 3rd Royal London One Day International - England v Australia, 19th June 2018

TRENT BRIDGE
EST. 1838

Arriving by bus or tram

The most convenient tram stops for Trent Bridge are Nottingham Station and Queens Walk, both a 20 minute walk away. Spectators travelling by car can take advantage of seven free park and ride sites across the city. The closest to the ground is Clifton South (17 minute tram travel time) stopping at Meadows Embankment, which is a 20 minute walk along the river to Trent Bridge, or travellers can stay on-board and travel to Nottingham Station. As an added incentive to use the tram Nottingham Express Transit (NET) are offering a £2 return event ticket for all match and season ticket holders. Please purchase the £2 event ticket at any of the tram stop ticket machines and have it to hand, along with your match ticket, should it be requested by a travel officer. If you have any problems purchasing the ticket, please use the help point provided on the side of the ticket machine.

International match ticket holders who use the tram can also take advantage of a free shuttle bus service. The service, run in partnership by Skills Coaches and NET, will depart from the bus stop on Arkwright Street, which is a short walk away from Nottingham Station's Queens Road or main exits. Buses will drop off near the Embankment, Trent Bridge, which is just a few minutes stroll over the bridge to the ground. Buses will leave Arkwright Street bus stop from noon and run every 10 minutes until the match starts at 2pm. The return service will pick up at the Embankment bus stop from the end of play and run every 10 minutes for one hour.

Non tram users are also welcome to use this service for just £2 return.
