Trent Rockets Women's team Physiotherapist

We would like to invite expressions of interest for the role of Physiotherapist the Trent Rockets Women's Team in the 2022 Hundred Competition.

Job Specification

To work with Head Coach Salliann Beams and with the players in our squad. To be responsible for care and treatment of players, work alongside a full-time strength and conditioning coach and with other science and medical staff in the Rockets organisation.

The role will be based in Nottingham with a requirement to travel to all matches and training sessions with the team as required by the Head Coach.

This job description is only a summary of the role as it currently exists and is not exhaustive or comprehensive. The responsibilities and accountabilities might differ from those outlined and other duties, as assigned, might be part of the job.

Qualification Requirements

- HCPC Registered
- Pitchside trauma qualified
- A minimum of two years' experience in elite sport
- Appropriate indemnity insurance

Contracted Dates

- Approx August 7th 2022 to September 4th 2022

Remuneration

- Guide salary is 6k

All travel and accommodation costs will be covered during the period of the contract.

How to Apply

Trent Rockets is an equal opportunities employer and would welcome expressions of interest from a full diverse range of candidates, regardless of age, gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, faith or disability. UK based applications only please.

To register interest please provide:

- Short letter of application
- An up to date curriculum vitae relevant to the role

Applications should be submitted by email to:
Mick Newell - Mick.newell@nottsccc.co.uk

Closing date for applications: 30/6/2022

Candidates must be eligible to work in the UK

No agencies please